(4) In Section 377, for sub-section (4), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(4) When an appeal has been filed against a sentence passed under Section 376B or Section 376C of the IPC, the appeal shall be disposed of within a period of six months from the date of filing of such appeal and when such appeal has been filed against a sentence passed under Sections 376, 376A, 376AB, 376DB or 376E of IPC, the appeal shall, be disposed of within a period of forty five days from the date of filings of such appeal”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The offences against women have increased many-fold in the state of Kerala in recent years. In spite of having stringent laws to tackle offences against women, inhuman acts against hapless women and children have been on a rise. In order to effectively control the sexual offences against women, it is imperative to complete the investigation and trial within the stipulated time frame. This would act as a deterrent to the perpetrators from committing such heinous crimes against women and children by ensuring that the criminals are brought to book at the earliest. It is in this context that a Bill is introduced to expedite the investigation and trial against women within stipulated timeframe.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill, if enacted and brought into operation, would not involve any additional expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State.
