The supplier hereby declares that the goods sold to the KITE under this contract shall be of the best quality and workmanship and shall be strictly in accordance with the specifications and particulars contained in the copy of the order attached herewith and the Supplier hereby guarantees that the said goods would continue to conform to the description and quality aforesaid for a period of 60 months from the date of delivery of the said goods to KITE and that notwithstanding the fact that the KITE may have inspected and/or approved the said goods, if during the aforesaid period of 60 months the said goods be discovered not to conform to the description and quality aforesaid or have deteriorated (and the decision of the KITE in that behalf will be final and conclusive) the KITE will be entitled to reject the said goods or such portion thereof as may be discovered not to conform to the said description and quality. On such rejection the goods will be at the Supplier's risk and all the provisions herein contained relating to rejection of goods, etc., shall apply. The contractor shall if so called upon to do replace the goods, etc., or such portion thereof as is rejected by the KITE. Otherwise the Supplier shall pay to the KITE such damages as may arise by reason of the breach of the condition herein contained. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice any other right of the KITE in that behalf under this contract or otherwise.

3. If the Supplier defaults in the supply of all or any of the articles correctly and promptly as above, the KITE are at liberty to procure the same from elsewhere without cancelling the contract as a whole. If KITE incur, in thus procuring such materials a higher cost than the agreed rate such excess cost may be deducted by the KITE from the Supplier's bill or adjusted or otherwise realized from his security deposit or recovered from him by other means. The Supplier agrees that he shall not be entitled to claim the excess, if any, of the tendered rate over such cost to KITE.
4. All sums found due to KITE under or by virtue of this agreement shall be recoverable from the supplier and its properties - movable and immovable under the provisions of the Revenue Recovery Act as amended from time to time as though such sums are arrears of land revenue and in such other manner as KITE may deem fit. KITE will be entitled to seek other reliefs and monetary compensation without prejudice to its right to initiate Revenue Recovery action.
5. The supplier has to strictly abide by all the terms and conditions including service conditions mentioned in purchase order released in this regard.

Obligations of KITE.

1. A technical committee constituted by the Government of Kerala, will monitor the overall implementation of the supply under this agreement.
2. The location, contact person and other details of hardware deployment will be forwarded by KITE.

Obligations of supplier

1. Supplier shall promptly position sufficient competent and well trained technical hands as support engineers in all District Resource Centers (RCs) in order to take care of distribution of hardware and accessories.
2. Supplier shall intimate and make available to KITE as well as all the participating schools, the details of offices and the persons to be made available by the supplier for providing after sales support for the supplied goods.
3. The supplier shall promptly provide comprehensive and all the essential onsite support for all equipments during the warranty period. The service levels shall be strictly as follows and the prescribed penalty as specified hereinafter shall be charged for not meeting the service levels:

13

Sl. No.	Item	Response Time	Time Limit for closing calls	Penalty per day for delayed service	Warranty
1	Multimedia Projector	2 working days	Within 5 Working days	Rs.100	5 year on-site

Penalty accumulated due to non-compliance of service level requirement shall be deducted from the Bank Guarantee provided by the supplier as well as any sum due to the supplier.

Force Majeure

Neither KITE nor the supplier shall be considered defaulting in performance of their obligations under the terms listed in this agreement, if their performance is adjudged and found to have been prevented or delayed for any cause beyond the reasonable control of the party affected, such as war, natural calamities, hostilities, revolution, riots, fire, explosion, flood, earthquake or because of any law, decree, proclamations, regulations or ordinance of Government or Sub-divisions thereof or any other cause beyond the control of the concerned parties which could not have been foreseen or avoided by the exercise of due diligence: provided notices of any such case with necessary evidence is given within a 14 day period or if this is not possible, within a reasonable period without delay. As soon as the cause of force majeure has been removed, the party whose liability to perform its obligation has been affected shall notify the other party the actual delay that might have occurred in such affected activity.

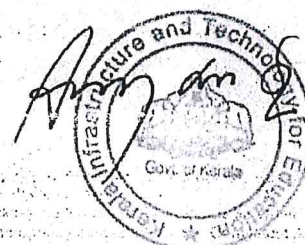

Arbitration

If a dispute of any kind whatsoever arises between the KITE and the Contractor in connection with, or arising out of the Contract or the execution of the works, whether during the execution of the Works or after their completion and whether before or after repudiation or after termination of the contract, including any disagreement by either party with any action, inaction, opinion, instruction, determination, certificate or valuation of the Vice Chairman and Executive Director or his nominee, the matter in dispute shall, in first place be referred to the Chairman of KITE. If the dispute is not settled between the supplier and KITE within 45 days, the dispute can be referred to an arbitrator with mutual consent who shall have powers conferred to him under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 or supplier may approach the court in Trivandrum, after giving due notice to the Chairman of KITE.

All sums found due to KITE under or by virtue of this agreement shall be recoverable from the supplier and its properties - movable and immovable under the provisions of the Revenue Recovery Act as amended from time to time as though such sums are arrears of land revenue and in such other manner as KITE may deem fit. KITE will be entitled to seek other reliefs and monetary compensation without prejudice to its right to initiate Revenue Recovery action.
 5. The supplier has to strictly abide by all the terms and conditions including service conditions mentioned in purchase order released in this regard.

Obligations of KITE.

1. A technical committee constituted by the Government of Kerala, will monitor the overall implementation of the supply under this agreement.
2. The location, contact person and other details of hardware deployment will be forwarded by KITE.

Obligations of supplier

1. Supplier shall promptly position sufficient competent and well trained technical hands as support engineers in all District Resource Centers (RCs) in order to take care of distribution of hardware and accessories.
2. Supplier shall intimate and make available to KITE as well as all the participating schools, the details of offices and the persons to be made available by the supplier for providing after sales support for the supplied goods.
3. The supplier shall promptly provide comprehensive and all the essential onsite support for all equipments during the warranty period. The service levels shall be strictly as follows and the prescribed penalty as specified hereinafter shall be charged for not meeting the service levels:

11

Sl. No.	Item	Response Time	Time Limit for closing calls	Penalty per day for delayed service	Warranty
1	Multimedia Projector	2 working days	Within 5 Working days	Rs.100	5 year onsite

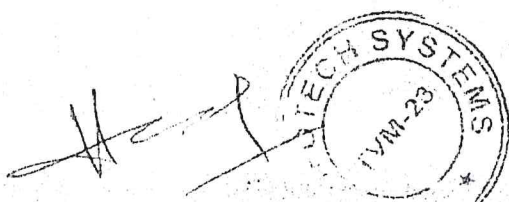

Penalty accumulated due to non-compliance of service level requirement shall be deducted from the Bank Guarantee provided by the supplier as well as any sum due to the supplier.

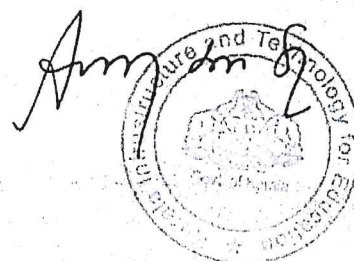

Force Majeure

Neither KITE nor the supplier shall be considered defaulting in performance of their obligations under the terms listed in this agreement, if their performance is adjudged and found to have been prevented or delayed for any cause beyond the reasonable control of the party affected, such as war, natural calamities, hostilities, revolution, riots, fire, explosion, flood, earthquake or because of any law, decree, proclamations, regulations or ordinance of Government or Sub-divisions thereof or any other cause beyond the control of the concerned parties which could not have been foreseen or avoided by the exercise of due diligence: provided notices of any such case with necessary evidence is given within a 14 day period or if this is not possible, within a reasonable period without delay. As soon as the cause of force majeure has been removed, the party whose liability to perform its obligation has been affected shall notify the other party the actual delay that might have occurred in such affected activity.

Arbitration

If a dispute of any kind whatsoever arises between the KITE and the Contractor in connection with, or arising out of the Contract or the execution of the works, whether during the execution of the Works or after their completion and whether before or after repudiation or after termination of the contract, including any disagreement by either party with any action, inaction, opinion, instruction, determination, certificate or valuation of the Vice Chairman and Executive Director or his nominee, the matter in dispute shall, in first place be referred to the Chairman of KITE. If the dispute is not settled between the supplier and KITE within 45 days, the dispute can be referred to an arbitrator with mutual consent who shall have powers conferred to him under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 or supplier may approach the court in Trivandrum, after giving due notice to the Chairman of KITE.
