then Principal and HOD who were in office, at the time of the student studying for the B-Com course had already retired when the application for M.Com course was being processed.

On perusal of application it was seen that the application was accompanied with original degree certificate, T.C, Migration Certificate, Eligibility Certificate from the University of Kerala and all documents had been verified by the P.G admission committee.

The Principal crosschecked the documents with the checklist contained in the prospectus. Since the University had Eligibility Certificate, the Principal did not doubt the bonafides of the documents submitted by the student. Moreover the student had submitted the T.C. It is submitted that at present there is no mechanism to check the genuineness of the certificates submitted by a student. Also, neither the convener nor the faculty could identify the student personally. In these circumstances there was no occasion to doubt the credentials of the student.

Hence, it is submitted that the overlapping of the two same degrees, though the committee verified the documents, was not detected and nor known during the admission process. It is also submitted that on knowing that the certificate was fake, the college immediately submitted complaint to the local police S.H.O. It is submitted that additional precautions and monitoring will be taken with regard to admission in future.

Yours faithfully,
