THE KERALA TEMPORARY STAY OF EVICTION PROCEEDINGS
(AMENDMENT) BILL, 2009

An extent of 126.01.500 acres of surplus land comprised in Re-survey Number 2, 86/1&2 in Raroth Village in Kozhikode Taluk in Kozhikode District was taken over by the Government from M/s. Malabar Rubber Produce Company as per the provisions of the Kerala Land Reforms Act, 1963 and an extent of 98.50 acres, out of the said land was proposed to be transferred by the Government to the Central Reserve Police Force as per G.O. (Ms.) No. 408/95/RD. dated 19th August, 1995 for the purpose of setting up of a training complex. Subsequently the above proposal was cancelled as per G.O. (Ms.) No. 224/97/RD. dated 31st March, 1997. The above decision was taken considering the fact that a good number of persons in occupation of the said land are landless poor labourers, eligible for assignment of excess land under section 96 of the Kerala Land Reforms Act, 1963 and also considering the grave law and order problem that may arise if mass eviction is carried out.

2. The High Court of Kerala in its Judgment in O.P. No. 1703/96 has directed that if the Government does not want the said land for public purpose, it shall be assigned in terms of the Kerala Land Reforms Act, 1963 or of the Kerala Land Assignment Act, 1960, without giving any priority to the encroachers for their occupancy during the period of their encroachment.

3. A large number of applications filed by persons, including those who are now in occupation of the said land, for assignment pursuant to the notification issued by the District Collector, Kozhikode, are under the active consideration of the Government.

4. The High Court of Kerala in its judgment in O.P. No. 13326 of 1996 had directed the Government to evict the persons who are in occupation of the said land and to set apart the land for the intended public purpose and time was granted upto 31st July, 2006 to comply with the said direction in C. C. C. No. 1189 of 2000 in the said O.P.

5. Some more time is required for the Government to examine and consider the applications filed by persons including the present occupants and to take decisions thereon. Difficulties will arise if proceedings for eviction of the occupants are taken without examining the applications. Since the Government consider that it is necessary, in the public interest, to stay the eviction proceedings against the present occupants temporarily, the Kerala Temporary Stay of Eviction Proceedings Act, 2007 (14 of 2007) was passed and Eviction Proceedings were stayed for a period of two years from the 26th day of July, 2006.

6. But, by judgment in O.P. No. 27272/06 filed by Dr. Babu Oomman Thomas, the Hon'ble High Court of Kerala had struck down the Kerala Temporary Stay of Eviction Proceedings Act, 2007 (14 of 2007) and accordingly the Government of Kerala was constrained to implement the existing judgment of the Kerala High Court and to take steps to evict the occupants. Against this judgment the Government of Kerala had filed SLP (C) No. 27549/2008 before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and obtained stay order from the Hon'ble Supreme Court against the order of the Hon'ble High Court in O.P. No. 27272/06.

7. More than ten thousand occupants including the present occupants have filed applications before the District Collector Kozhikode and as some more time is required for the Government to examine the same and to take a decision, the Government consider it necessary, in the public interest, to stay the eviction proceedings against the present occupants temporarily.

8. As the State Legislative Assembly was not in session and the eviction proceedings were to be stayed urgently the Kerala Temporary Stay of Eviction Proceedings (Amendment) Ordinance, 2009 (11 of 2009) was promulgated by the Governor on the 8th day of April, 2009 and the same was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 740 dated the 8th day of April, 2009.

9. A Bill to replace Ordinance No. 11 of 2009 by an Act of the Kerala Legislative Assembly was published as Bill No. 268 of the Twelfth Kerala Legislative Assembly but the same could not be introduced in and passed by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Kerala during its session which commenced on the 22nd day of June, 2009 and ended on the 24th day of July, 2009. Therefore, in order to keep alive the provisions of the said Ordinance, Kerala Temporary Stay of Eviction Proceedings (Amendment) Ordinance, 2009 (13 of 2009) was promulgated by the Governor on the 25th day of July, 2009 and published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 1367 dated the 25th day of July, 2009.

10. The Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature.

THE KERALA LAND CONSERVANCY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2009

There is tremendous increase in the value of lands in the State and hence the tendency to encroach Revenue lands has become frequent. Lands are also encroached on the strength of forged documents. In the circumstances Conservation of Revenue land is found very essential.

In addition to Revenue land, Government have under their custody, land obtained through attachment through surrender of excess land under the Kerala Land Reforms Act, 1963 and also through eviction from unauthorised occupation in land, etc. These lands are to be protected. from encroachment so that they can be utilised for the developmental activities of Government, for distribution among landless and also for increasing the state revenue.

Kerala Land Conservancy Act, 1957 is the existing Act for the protection of revenue land. The provisions in this Act are insufficient. As per section 7 of the Kerala Land Conservancy Act, 1957 a penalty of a maximum of Rupees two hundred only can be imposed on the encroachers. If the encroacher is eligible for assignment of land under the Kerala Land Assignment Act, even this penalty cannot be imposed.

Government have examined the matter in detail and decided to make amendments in section 7 of the Kerala Land Conservancy Act, 1957 for providing provision for imprisonment and for imposing penalty on those who encroach the revenue land and to make consequential amendment in the related sections of the above Act.

As the Legislative Assembly of the State of Kerala was not in session and the above proposal had to be given effect to immediately, the Kerala Land Conservancy (Amendment) Ordinance, 2008 (41 of 2008), was promulgated by the Governor on the 8th day of November, 2008 and was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 2414 dated 8th November, 2008 for the above said purpose.

A Bill to replace Ordinance No. 41 of 2008 was published as Bill No. 239 of the 12th Kerala Legislative Assembly, but the same could not be introduced in, and passed by, the Legislative Assembly during its session which commenced on the 24th day of November, 2008 and ended on the 18th day of December, 2008. Therefore, the Kerala Land Conservancy (Amendment) Ordinance, 2009 (1 of 2009) was promulgated by the Governor on the 3rd day of January, 2009 and the same was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 28 dated 5th January, 2009.

A Bill to replace Ordinance No. 1 of 2009 could not be introduced in, and passed by, the Legislative Assembly of the State of Kerala during its session which commenced on the 13th day February, 2009 and ended on the 3rd day of March, 2009. Therefore, the Kerala Land Conservancy (Amendment) Ordinance, 2009 (6 of 2009) was promulgated by the Governor on the 26th day of March, 2009 and the same was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 674 dated 26th March, 2009.

The Bill seeks to replace the Ordinance No. 6 of 2009 by and Act of the State Legislature.

THE KERALA CASHEW FACTORIES (ACQUISITION)
(AMENDMENT) BILL, 2009

There were 34 cashew factories under the possession of Kerala State Cashew Development Corporation. Of these ten are own factories, 4 factories were returned to the owners in 2002 as per the orders of Hon'ble Court and the balance 20 are lease hold/requisition factories.

Some private owners of the cashew factory have leased out their factories to the Kerala State Cashew Development Corporation on monthly rent basis after executing lease deed for a specific period. On expiry of these period, some factory owners who were unwilling to renew these deed called upon the Kerala State Cashew Development Corporation to release and hand over the factories and assets to the owners. Then the Government passed the Kerala Cashew Factories (Requisitioning) Act, 1979 (6 of 1979) intending to legalise the continuing possession of the lease by the Corporation. In order to protect the interest of the workers, it was necessary to enable the Corporation to continue in possession and management of these cashew factories. As per the above said Act, Government was empowered to extend the lease indefinitely by installments of five years at a time.

In O. P. No. 16424/1994, it was held that the power to extent requisition period for more than five years without procedural safeguards is constitutionally invalid and amendment of section 3 of the said Act by section 2 of the Kerala Cashew Factories (Requisitioning) Amendment Act, 1985 (26 of 1985) is invalid and on the facts and circumstances of the case, requisition of the petitioners factory by Government was illegal and therefore factory should be given back to the petitioner as provided under section 4 of the Act. The Writ Appeals against this judgment have been dismissed by Division Bench of Hon'ble High Court of Kerala. The Hon'ble Supreme Court also dismissed the Civil Appeal against the judgment.

In the meanwhile the Hon'ble High Court of Kerala vide judgment dated 11th June, 2009 dismissed O.P. No. 38671 of 2002 (D) directing the Kerala State Cashew Development Corporation and Government to hand over the management of the Factories No. 32 (Q 31) and 34 (K.U.9) situated at Vadakkevila, Kollam Taluk and at Melila, Kottarakkara Taluk to the petitioners in the O.P. within a period of 2 months from the date of receipt of a copy of the judgment holding that the legal question involved in the O.P. has already been settled by the final judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Kerala State Cashew Development Corporation Vs. Shahal Hassan Mussaliar [2009 (2) KL T 95 (SC)].

In the circumstances, the Government have to release from requisition any cashew factory requisitioned under section 3 of the said Act and Kerala State Cashew Development Corporation cannot hold these factories without valid requisition/acquisition or any valid lease. Consequent to the decision of Hon'ble Supreme Court has become settled that requisition cannot continue beyond a reasonable period.

Factory No. 3 at Neduvathoor and factory No. 19 at Ezhukone were returned to its original owners consequent to the direction of Hon'ble High Court in 2002. Now seven years have been elapsed. Even after such a long time duration those factories were not re-opened so far. In view of the views expressed by the Hon'ble High Court at paras 13 and 16 in the judgment dated 4th September, 1997 in O.P. No. 16424/1994, Government desires to take action for acquisition of those factories, in order to give better, employment to the employees.

Government are of the view that the Cashew factories specified in Schedule II of this Bill, now in possession of Kerala State Cashew Development Corporation either under a lease existing or expired or under requisition current or expired, if returned to their respective owners, they may not provide employment to the entire/any of the employees/workers and such employees/workers will be rendered unemployed. In these circumstances in order to continue to provide employment to such employees/workers, the Government have decided to acquire those factories in public interest and for which amendment to the Kerala Cashew Factories (Acquisition) Act, 1974 is, required.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above object.

THE KERALA TODDY WORKERS' WELFARE FUND
(AMENDMENT) BILL, 2009

The employer's contribution under sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Kerala Toddy Workers' Welfare Fund Act, 1969 is eight per cent of the wages for the time being payable to each of the employees and the employee's contribution is equal to the contribution payable by the employer in respect of him.

There is no separate provision for payment of compensation to the toddy workers for injury sustained during the course of employment or to his legal heirs in the event of his death as a result of the injuries so sustained. Government have examined the matter and decided to amend the Kerala Toddy Workers' Welfare Fund Act by enhancing the said contribution from eight per cent to ten per cent by amending sub-section (1) of section 4 and by inserting sub-section (4) to that section for levying from the employer ten rupees each for every half year in the case of every coconut tree and twenty rupees each for every year in the case of every palmirah tree tapped for payment of compensation.

As the Legislative Assembly of the State of Kerala was not in session and the above proposal had to be given effect to immediately, the Kerala Toddy Workers' Welfare Fund (Amendment) Ordinance, 2009 (5 of 2009) was promulgated by the Governor on the 18th day of January, 2009 and was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 142 dated 19th January, 2009.

A Bill to replace Ordinance No. 5 of 2009 could not be introduced in, and passed by, the Legislative Assembly of the State of Kerala during its session which commenced on the 13th day of February, 2009 and ended on the 3rd day of March, 2009. Therefore, the Kerala Toddy Workers' Welfare Fund (Amendment) Ordinance, 2009 (7 of 2009) was promulgated by the Governor on the 26th day of March, 2009 and the same was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 673 dated 26th March, 2009.

A Bill to replace Ordinance No. 7 of 2009 by an Act of the State Legislature was published as Bill No. 283 of the Twelfth Kerala Legislative Assembly, but the same could not be introduced in, and passed by, the Kerala Legislative Assembly during its session which commenced on the 22nd day of June, 2009 and ended on the 24th day of July, 2009. Therefore, the Kerala Toddy Workers' Welfare Fund (Amendment) Ordinance, 2009 (17 of 2009) was promulgated by the Governor on the 1st day of August, 2009 and the same was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 1412 dated 1st August, 2009.

The Bill seeks to replace the Ordinance No. 17 of 2009 by an Act of the State Legislature.

THE KERALA PANCHAYAT RAJ
(SECOND AMENDMENT) BILL, 2009

The Kerala Panchayat Raj Act, 1994 (13 of 1994) came into force on 23rd April, 1994. Government consider it necessary to amend certain provisions of it.

These amendments are mainly intended for the purpose .of increasing the number of members of Village/Block Panchayat, reservation of the number of members of the Village/Block/District Panchayats for women, reservation of fifty percent of the offices of the President, Vice-President for women, increasing the number of Standing Committees, reservation of fifty percent for women in the Chairperson and Members of the Standing Committee, for bringing the election of members of the Standing Committee under the control of the State Election Commission, disqualifying persons contesting election using bogus community certificate, reducing the period of election campaign from twenty days to fourteen days at par with the provisions of the Representation of People Act, limiting penal interest to one percent, prohibition of depositing rubbish, filth and excreta into water bodies, water sources and punishment for that offence, tax proposal intended to be-imposed for every building in the area of the Village Panchayat, power to exempt from tax and cess, levying of surcharge on tax, control of unlawful constructions.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above object.

THE KERALA MUNICIPALITY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2009

The Kerala Municipality Act, 1994 (20 of 1994) came into force on 30th May, 1994. Government consider it necessary to amend certain sections of it.

Important amendments proposed by these amendments are, reservation of fifty percent of the Municipal and Corporation Councillors for women, reservation of fifty percent of the offices of Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson, Mayor and Deputy Mayor for women, increasing the number of Standing Committees, reservation of fifty percent for women in the Chairman and members of the Standing Committee, for bringing the election of members of the Standing Committee under the control of the State Election Commission, fifty percent reservation for women in the District Planning Committee, Metropolitan Planning Committee and the State Development Council, reducing the period of election campaign from twenty days to fourteen days at par with the provisions of the Representation of People Act, recovery of service cess, power to exempt tax and cess, power to grant licence for the maintenance of public latrines, guidelines to afford privacy in this matter, entrustment of these responsibilities to officers, recovery of fine with regard to disposal of solid waste, prohibition of depositing rubbish, filth and excreta into water bodies, water sources, and punishment for that offence, tax proposal intended to be imposed for every building in the area of municipality, control of unlawful constructions, disqualification of candidates who use bogus community certificates in election and amendment of Schedule IV of the Act.

The Bill seeks to achieve the above object.

THE PAMPA RIVER BASIN AUTHORITY BILL, 2009

State of Kerala have felt the necessity to prepare the Pampa Action Plan for conserving the Holy river Pampa and its basins by preventing pollution through effective planning, monitoring and management for which the Government of India had accorded approval. In order to carry out this object, it was decided to constitute an Authority empowered with the functions and powers for the execution of different projects under the said Plan.

2. As, the Legislative Assembly of the State was not in session, and it was felt necessary to make a comprehensive legislation for achieving the above objects, the Pampa River Basin Authority Ordinance, 2008 was promulgated by the Governor of Kerala on the 1st day of August, 2008 as Ordinance No. 31 of 2008 and the same was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 1681 dated, the 2nd August, 2008.

3. A Bill to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature could not be introduced in, and passed by the Kerala Legislative Assembly during its session which commenced on the 24th day of November, 2008 and ended on the 18th day of December, 2008.

4. In order to keep alive the provisions of the said Ordinance, the Pampa River Basin Authority Ordinance, 2009 was promulgated by the Governor on the 3rd day of January, 2009 as Ordinance No. 3 of 2009 and the same was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 3 dated 5th January, 2009.

5. A Bill to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature could not be introduced in, and passed by the Kerala Legislative Assembly during the session which commenced on the 13th day of February, 2009 and ended on the 3rd day of March, 2009.

6. In order to keep alive the provision of the said Ordinance, the Pampa River Basin Authority Ordinance, 2009 was promulgated by the Governor on the 26th day of March, 2009 as Ordinance No. 9 of 2009 and the same was published in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 676 dated 26th March, 2009.

THE CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
(KERALA AMENDMENT) BILL, 2008

The Honourable High Court has directed the State Government to introduce Video Conferencing System in Courts and Jails. Various Prison Reforms Commissions, Committees and Human Rights Commission have also made similar recommendations.

2. The introduction of video conference system will lead to considerable saving of time, energy, money and manpower to judicial as well as prison authorities for the reason that the present system of undertaking the trial by taking the prisoners and undertrials to produce before the Judge and back to custody can be given up. The chances of the prisoners or under trials getting access to prohibited articles such as narcotic drugs, currency, weapons, communication equipments and to antisocial elements may also be ruled out once their physical presence is dispensed with.

3. For this purpose section 167 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974) has to be amended and a new section, 267 A, has to be inserted to the said code.

4. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

THE KERALA FOREST (VESTING AND MANAGEMENT OF ECOLOGICALLY FRAGILE LANDS) AMENDMENT BILL, 2009

There have been complaints about several practical difficulties being faced by the nominal small scale farmers engaged in farming near the forest land in connection with the implementation of the Kerala Forest (Vesting and Management of Ecologically Fragile Lands) Act, 2003. In the circumstances where several complaints are being received by Government regarding the delay in the settlement of the disputes especially from the small scale farmers of the lands declared as ecologically fragile, it has become essential to provide for an alternative arrangement for deciding such complaints.

2. Government have decided to amend the Kerala Forest (Vesting and Management of Ecologically Fragile Lands) Act, 2003 by inserting new sections 10A and 10B respectively after section, 10 of the Act for providing the dispute redressal in respect of land having an extent of not more than five acres and for the constitution of Ecologically Fragile Land Claim Dispute Redressal Committee.

3. As the Legislative Assembly of the State was not in session and it was satisfied that a comprehensive legislation was necessary to achieve the above objects, the Kerala Forest (Vesting and Management of Ecologically Fragile Lands) Amendment Ordinance, 2009, (20 of 2009) was promulgated by the Governor on the 20th day of August, 2009 and the same was published as Ordinance No. 20 of 2009 in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 1519 dated, the 20th August, 2009.

The Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature.
