Direction No. 8

Subject Committees

1. Scrutiny of Demands for Grants:

(i) Procedure for variations under sub heads--Under Article 203 (2) of the Constitution, while the Legislative Assembly may refuse to assent to a demand, or assent to it subject to a reduction of the amount specified therein, it may not increase the demand. Thus while a Subject Committee may, in examining a demand under its various sub-heads, recommend variations from one sub-head to another, such variations shall not have the effect of increasing the total allocation under the demand. If an increase is sought to be made under one sub-head, a corresponding saving has to be shown under another sub-head within the same demand. A Subject Committee may, however, recommend an enhancement or a new service, such enhancement or new service to be effected either by re appropriation where possible or through a supplementary demand. In making its recommendations, the Subject Committee shall keep in view also the resources constraint.

(ii) Preparation of programme statements by Government Departments in relation to their respective Demands.-In order to enable the Subject Committees to scrutinize the Demands for Grants purposefully and effectively, the Departments of Government may develop a system of preparing programme statements in relation to their respective budget demands. These should identify specific policy objectives, specify all the activities that contribute to the objectives, identify the resources and costs required to achieve them, and contain measurements or assessments of outputs. In regard to projects involving capital outlay, the size of the project (physical targets, costs, etc) its broad objectives, whether the work is to be undertaken on a phased programme, the steps suggested for monitoring progress and allied details may be given. If it is an ongoing project, whether money allotted in the previous year was spent as scheduled, the programme for the current year cost escalation, if any, and a performance review may be presented. In the case of an industry/corporation, its capital structure (including loans, debentures, grants etc.) its field of activity, its rated capacity and actual production, details of financial position (including assets and liabilities and profit and loss account), relationship of productivity to cost, scheme if any for repayment of loan etc., may be given. In the case of a scheme, e.g., a welfare scheme, the objectives to be attained by the scheme, the class/classes of persons to be covered, their probable number, modalities of implementation, and the annual cost (payments to beneficiaries and/or cost of welfare programmes, and cost of administration of the scheme) may be clearly set out. In regard to subsidies and grants, the purport of such subsidy/grant, its basis, and the financial implications thereof will be stated. These are only illustrations and are intended to suggest a pattern. The financial figures in all these cases should be supplemented by analyses showing the objectives of individual spending programmes and the results of past programmes.

2. Attendance of Officers at meeting of Subject Committee

Normally, only special Secretaries/Secretaries/Commissioners and Heads of Departments (Managing Director in the case of an industry/corporation) shall attend Subject Committees. In addition, officers not below the rank of a Deputy Secretary, may also attend, where considered necessary.

3. Papers for circulation to members of Subject Committees

Fifty copies each of all papers intended for circulation to members of a Subject Committee shall reach the Legislature Secretariat at least three days before the date fixed for a meeting of the Committee, and the members shall be supplied with such papers at least two days before the meeting.

4. Follow-up action on Reports of Subject Committees

A quarterly report on action taken by Departments on the recommendations of the Subject Committees shall be sent by each Department to the concerned Subject Committee

5. Meeting to discuss matters referred to in rule 235 (1) (iii) & (v)

Besides the meetings for scrutiny of Demands for Grants, examination of legislation and examination of draft statutory rules (Subordinate Legislation), each Subject Committee may, when the Legislative Assembly is not in session, hold at least one meeting every month to discuss any of the matters referred to in rule 235 (1) (iii) & (v). The date and time for such meeting shall be fixed by the Speaker in consultation with the Chairman of the concerned Subject Committee.

(Issued by the Speaker on August 2, 1984)

Direction No. 9

It is hereby clarified that the scrutiny referred to in the said sub-rule (2) of rule 236 includes also the finalization of the Report of every Subject Committee in respect of the demands for grants falling within its purview.
