7. The Travancore-Cochin Hindu Religious Institutions (Amendment) Bill, 1999

1. Section 4 of the Travancore-Cochin Hindu Religious Institutions Act, 1950 (XV of 1950) provides that Travancore Devaswom Board shall consist of 3 Hindu members, two of whom shall be nominated by the Hindus among the Council of Ministers and one elected by the Hindu members in the Legislative Assembly of the State. There is similar provision in section 63 of the Act in respect of the Cochin Devaswom Board also. The said Act also insists that the Hindu Members of the Council of Ministers and the Hindu Members of the Legislative Assembly who participate in the nomination or election, as the case may be, of the member of the Board shall be persons who believe in God and temple worship and such Ministers or the members of the Legislative Assembly shall deliver a declaration to that effect before making the nomination or participating in the election.

2. Sub-section (aa) under section 2 and sub-section (4A), under section 61 defines 'the Hindu' as a person who is a Hindu by birth or by conversion into Hindu religion and professes the Hindu religion and believes in God and temple worship.

3. Government considered that the person who is nominated or elected as a member of the Devaswom Board shall be a Hindu who believes in God and temple worship. It was also considered fair to give opportunity to all Hindu members of the Council of Ministers and all Hindu members of the Legislative Assembly who profess the Hindu Religion to participate in the nomination or election without insisting on giving a declaration to the effect that they believe in God and temple worship.

4. As the Legislative Assembly was not in session and as the proposals had to be given effect to immediately, the Travancore-Cochin Hindu Religious Institutions (Amendment) Ordinance, 1998 was promulgated by the Governor on the 14th day of December, 1998 and the same was published as Ordinance No. 18 of 1998 in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 2047 dated the 19th December, 1998.

5. The Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature.

2. The Kerala Lok Ayukta Bill, 1999

In pursuance of the declared policy of the State Government to eliminate corruption in public service, it has become necessary to strengthen the existing vigilance machinery in the State. Government considered that the Kerala Public Men's Corruption (Investigations and Inquiries) Act, 1987 in force in the State, was not sufficient to prevent, effectively, the corruption among public servants. Government considered it necessary to widen the ambit of the legislation by including all the Government servants, the members and the person in service of the local authority, statutory and non-statutory bodies and co-operative societies within the purview of the same. Therefore, it has been decided to bring forth a comprehensive new legislation for the effective inquiry and investigation of complaints against public servants and matters connected therewith or ancillary thereto.

2. As the Legislative Assembly was not in session and as the proposal had to be given effect to immediately, the Kerala Lok Ayukta Ordinance, 1998 was promulgated by the Governor on the 15th day of November, 1998, after obtaining instructions from the President of India, and the same was published as Ordinance No. 16 of 1998 in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 1870 dated the 15th November, 1998.

3. The Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature.

4. The notes on clauses appended to the Bill explain the various provisions in the Bill.

13. The Kerala General Sales Tax (Amendment) Bill, 1998

Sub-sections (6) and (8) of section 17 of the Kerala General Sales Tax Act, 1963 (15 of 1963) prescribe a time limit of four years from the end of the financial year in which the assessment is made for the completion of original assessments and a period of four years from the end of the financial year in which the order giving rise to re-assessment is made, for the completion of re-assessment under the said Act. But in the case of assessments relating to the period upto and including the year 1993-94 and in the case of re-assessments in respect of which the order of the appellate or revisional authority giving rise to such re-assessment received upto and including the year 1993-94, the time was extended upto the 30th day of September, 1998, by the amendment made to sub-sections (6) and (8) of section 17 of the Kerala General Sales Tax Act, 1963, by the Kerala Finance Act, 1998 (14 of 1998) [vide section 3 (3) (b) and (5)].

2. Though almost all the cases falling under the above categories have been completed, there are few cases which could not be completed since the assessment records in respect of which are held up in the office of the Advocate General and in the offices of the statutory authorities in connection with certain Original Petitions pending before court or other statutory proceedings pending before such authorities. Such cases would be barred by limitation and revenue involved in such cases may be lost unless the time limit in respect of such cases are not extended further.

3. By the Kerala Finance Act, 1998 (14 of 1998) the word "Horlicks, Boost, Bournvita, Complan" appearing in Serial No. 87 of the First Schedule to the Kerala General Sales Tax Act, 1963 were omitted by mistake [vide section 3(17) (viii)]. Government had not intended to grant any concession in the rate of tax on these commodities. Concession in the rate of tax was announced only in respect of non-alcoholic drinks and beverages manufactured by Small Scale Industrial Units within the State (rate in respect of which was reduced from 20% to 10%). Deletion of the said items from Serial No. 87 will cause revenue loss to the Government.

4. The Government intend to re-introduce in the next session of the year 1993-94 from the 30th day of September, 1998 to the 31st day of March, 1999 and also to re-introduce the items Horlicks, Boost, Bournvita and Complan in Serial No. 87 in the First Schedule to Kerala General Sales Tax Act, 1963.

5. Amendment to the Kerala General Sales Tax Act, 1963, was necessary to give effect to the above proposals.

6. As the Legislative Assembly was not in session and as the proposals had to be given effect to immediately, the Kerala General Sales Tax (Amendment) Ordinance, 1998 was promulgated by the Governor on the 29th day of September, 1998 and the same was published as Ordinance No. 13 of 1998 in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 1575 dated the 29th September, 1998.

7. The Bill seeks to replace Ordinance No. 13 of 1998 by an Act of the State Legislature.
